No. J 1215

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 12A of the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation, 1907, and in supersession of Govt. Notn. No. J 2291-Legn. 20-13-1 dated 12th Feb. 1914 as amended by notn. No. J 2439-Legn 48-14-1 dated 18th September 1915, J 3548-Legn 42-15-1 dated 29th Feb. 1916 and J 4846-Legn 47-15-1 dated 13th June and by Govt order No. F 4490-513-Legis 48-16 & 1 dated 5th June 1917

1916, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to make the following rules for the ~~purpose~~ discussion of the Budget and the asking of questions in the Legis. Council

I. Rules for the Discussion of the Budget in the Council.

1. As soon as possible after the 12th April printed copies of the Draft Budget Estimate of the ensuing year with a brief statement explaining its salient points will be despatched to each member of the Mysore Legislative Council. Members who wish to obtain any information on any point connected with the budget may apply in writing to the Financial Secretary to Government who will comply with such applications as far as possible. The meeting for discussing the budget will be held in the latter part of June.

2. At the meeting of the Legislative Council each member will offer any observations he may wish to make on the budget, provided—

(a) that a member shall speak only once,

(b) that he shall not without the special permission of the President take up more than fifteen minutes,

(c) that the observations shall be confined to the subject matter of the budget.

3. The Financial Secretary will then reply to such points as may not have been dealt with by official members preceding him and the discussion will be closed by the President with such observations, if any, as he may consider necessary.

4. No discussion shall be permitted in regard to any subject removed from the cognizance the Mysore Legislative Council by the proviso to Section 12 of the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation of 1907.

II. Rules for Asking Questions in the Council.

5. Subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in the following rules, any of the Non-official Members of the Council (elected or nominated) may ask any question on Matters of public interest or importance.

6. No Member shall be allowed to send up more than three questions for any session of the council.

7. No question shall be asked or answered in the Mysore Legislative Council as to any matters or branches of the Administration relating to the subjects removed from the cognizance of the Mysore Legislative Council under the Proviso to sub-section (2) of Section 12 of the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation, 1907.

8. Questions must be so framed as to be merely requests for information and must not be in an argumentative or hypothetical form or defamatory of any person or section of the community, and each question must deal with a single subject, though it may be divided into convenient subordinate questions.

9. The member wishing to put any questions shall send them up at least twelve clear days before the date fixed for the meeting, to the Secretary to the Legislative Council, the notice being signed by as many other Non-official Members as may wish to support the question.

10. If more than 20 questions are received, the number of questions to be answered will be selected on the grounds of the importance of the questions, priority of their receipt and the measure or support which they may have received from other Non-official Members. 11/6

11. The President may disallow any question without giving any reason therefor other than that in his opinion it cannot be answered consistantly with the public interests; and in such case the question shall not be entered in the proceedings of the Council.

12. The President may if he thinks fit, allow a question to be asked with shorter notice than twelve clear days and may in any case require longer notice if he thinks fit or extend if necessary the time for answering a question.

13. All questions which are allowed by the President in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall be entered in the Agenda paper for the meeting of the Legislative Council. If any of the remaining questions are repeated by the same Member for any subsequent session of the Legislative Council, they will have precedence over new questions.

14. A question shall be read by the member by whom it was framed or in his absence, if he so desires, by some other Member in his behalf, and the answer shall be given either by the President or any Member whom he may designate for the purpose.

15. Any member who has asked a question may put a supplementary question for the purpose of further elucidating any matter of fact regarding which a request for information has been made in his original question.

16. The member who answered the original question may decline to answer a supplementary question without notice, in which case the supplentary question may be put in the form of a fresh question at a subsequent meeting of the Council.

17. The President may rule in his discretion that an answer to a question on the Notice Paper, even though the question be not put, shall be given on the ground of public interest.

18. No discussion shall be permitted in respect of an answer given to a question asked under these rules.

19. The question asked and the answer given to it shall be entered in the Proceedings of the Council.
